ORDER

MOTION	RULING
Docket No. 42	NOTED.
"Notice of Appearance," by Manuel San Juan, Esq., on behalf of petitioner John Casillas
Docket No. 44	GRANTED.
"Request for Extension of Time," by Counsel
Docket No. 46	GRANTED. The Court is aware that communication between local court-appointed counsel and clients incarcerated in the U.S. Mainland is difficult. However, notwithstanding the Court's acceptance of petitioner's pro se pleading, counsel should make an effort at reviewing the claims stated therein and submitting his position as counsel of record in a pleading of his own in order to assist the Court in identifying and reviewing the legal issues in the case. Counsel is instructed to file the required pleading within sixty (60) days from the date of this Order.
"Motion Submitting Petitioner's Pro Se Motion to Amend/Supplement," by Counsel
Docket No. 49
"Motion Requesting Substitution of Pages..." by Counsel
Docket No. 48	NOTED. The United States shall re-address its "Request for Dismissal of Petitioner's 2255 Motion" (Docket No. 31) in light of petitioner's opposition thereto (Docket No. 32) pursuant to FCI Estill's Inmate Accountable Mail Log, and the Court's Order of September 30, 2000 (Docket No. 45). The United States shall file the required pleading within thirty (30) days from the date of this Order.
